

WOMEN'S CLUBS --- SOCIETY ENLISTS FOR STREET FAIR FOR CHARITY

Annual Meetings Held as the Social Season Nears End

May Pole Party of Life as a Fine Art to Be Held on Wednesday.

A BUSY week is in prospect for women of clubs, for an unusual number of annual business meetings and breakfasts are scheduled to be held in the next few days. These annual events, especially the breakfasts, which usually end the season's social activities, take precedence over all other events in the club world. They always are largely attended, not only by the members but by their many friends.

The Chicago Woman's Club will have its annual May Day luncheon tomorrow at Stockton Chambers, and Life as a Fine Art Club has its May pole party at the same place on Wednesday evening. The New York Fresh Air Fund has its spring luncheon on Tuesday at the Hotel Astor, while the Nylc Post, 503 American Legion, has its annual vaudeville entertainment and dance that evening at the Hotel Pennsylvania, and the Universal Sunshine Society has its annual convention and luncheon also on Tuesday at the Hotel McAlpin.

The spring luncheon of the Woman's Forum, which will be followed by an unusual entertainment, will be held at the Hotel Astor on Thursday, and on Saturday the Washington Heights Chapter, D. A. R., will have its luncheon at the Hotel Biltmore.

The Women's Professional League will hold its annual meeting tomorrow at their room, 144 West Fifty-fifth street.

The Daughters of Ohio will have their annual meeting tomorrow at the Waldorf-Astoria, where on Wednesday afternoon the New York Browning Society will have its annual meeting and on Thursday the Rubinstein Club has its annual meeting.

Luncheon and Musicals For Sunshine Society

The Universal Sunshine Society's convention and luncheon on Tuesday at the Hotel McAlpin will be an all day event. Mrs. Clarence Burns is president of the society and Mrs. Jane Pierce general secretary. There will be a business meeting which will include reports of all cheer done in Sunshine's name throughout the year by delegates from many branches in different States, as well as in New York. The program will be of which an entertaining program is promised. The speakers on the occasion will include Health Commissioner Dr. Royal S. Copeland and Miss Mildred Holland, while the musical program will be given by Mrs. Emily Roosevelt Chaderton, soprano; Miss Margaret Cantrell, contralto; Reub Davis, violinist; Frederick Cromwell, pianist; Mrs. E. The Post Parliament, of which Mrs. Cora Wells Trow is president, will close its season by holding a "get-together" luncheon Friday at the Hotel McAlpin. It will be for members only and begin promptly at 1 o'clock. Mrs. Arthur H. Leary of 114 Morningside Drive is chairman of it.

The National California Club held a subscription dance Friday night at Delmonico's. Last Tuesday the members of the club were the guests of Mrs. Robert S. Moffitt at her home in East Orange. Bridge was played, with a souvenir for each table.

On Wednesday at the Waldorf-Astoria the New York Browning Society will hold its annual meeting. The luncheon will be in honor of Mrs. Thomas J. Vivian, who was the first corresponding secretary of the society, and has served as such for fifteen years. Reservations for the luncheon will be made from Mrs. W. Douglas Fenwick at 301 West Ninety-first street, who is chairman. There also will be a discussion on the poem of the day, Mrs. William L. Voigh, president, will preside.

New One Act Play For Drama Comedy

Drama Comedy, Edith Totten, president, will hold the last social matinee of the season Friday at the Hotel Astor. A new one act play, entitled "Rapa," will be given by C. Graye Hall and Harry Bunnell and an entire mile cast. The guests of honor will be Mr. and Mrs. Coburn and Kenyon Bishop of the "Bronx Express," Adolpho Roberts, Mrs. Marguerite Lemon, Olga Petrova and Margaret Weaver.

On May 19 the last dance of the season, "The Moonlight Dance," will be held, and the Drama Comedy season will come to a close on June 17 with the annual June gambol, when the entire Hotel Astor Roof will be used for a frolic, midnight supper and dancing.

Mrs. Matthew F. O'Connell of 557 West 124th street will be installed as one of the vice-presidents and will be one of the hostesses at a luncheon to be given by the Women's Democratic Club of the City of New York for the retiring president, Mrs. George H. Childs, at Kew Gardens Inn Thursday.

Members of the New Jersey Federation of Women's Clubs were the guests of honor at a reception given by the Allied Artists of America on Wednesday at their ninth annual exhibition, now being held in the galleries of the Fine Arts Building at 215 West Fifty-seventh street. The musical program consisted of songs by Belle Elsey (Mrs. F. E. Andrews).

Interested in Coming Street Fair in Aid of Crippled Children

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Whitney, Misses Katharine W. Porter, Lucile Baldwin, Beatrice Pratt, Cornelia Gallatin, Abby Morrison and May Taylor Moulton. One hundred of the young dancing men of society will be added to this list.

Mrs. Lydig Hoyt's theater, to be called "The Grand Giggle," will be patterned after the cafes chantants of Paris, and in it performances will be given afternoon and night.

To Sell Tombola Stock.

The tombola, with Mrs. Gustavus Towne Kirby at the head, will be run as a sort of stock exchange or curb market, with women brokers dressed, not up to date, but rather after the fashion of the Louis XIV. period, and they will sell the "stock" of the tombola, some of which is sure to pay a satisfactory dividend. Shares will be only $1 each.

The circus tent will be placed between Forty-sixth and Forty-seventh streets and the street fair will be held at the Hotel McAlpin. The entire Lunar Park attractions, Mrs. Lytle Fox, who was instrumental in obtaining the same attractions for the circus at the Southampton street fair last summer, will be at the head of this committee. Assisting her will be Mrs. J. Philip Benkert, Mortimer L. Schiff, Peter Einley Dunn, Frederick R. Childs, Sydney J. Colford, Grosvener Nicholas, Arthur Ryle, George A. Legg, Charles E.
